United Nations Day
- Volunteering for Our Common Agenda

On the United Nations Day on 24th October 2021, UNV Sri Lanka showcased UN Volunteers' contributions towards achieving 'Our Common Agenda.'

Our Common Agenda is an agenda of action centred on the Sustainable Development Goals to make a tangible difference in the lives of people. Find more about [the agenda and twelve areas of actions] and do join us to volunteer for the common goals.
During the International Volunteers Day (IVD) this year, UNV will celebrate its Golden Anniversary and will be commemorating important milestones in the volunteer journey. Through the UNV50 Awards, UNV will recognise fifty
I thank UNV for this opportunity providing me to work with the most powerful and universal plan to achieve Sustainable Development Goals and the 2030 Agenda. I hope to utilize my experience and knowledge in this platform at my best. I have no doubt that my contributions will be adding value to this global growth. I am ready for the journey with you, dear colleagues.

IVD is an international observance that was mandated by the UN General Assembly in 1985. The day is an opportunity for us all to promote volunteerism, encourage governments to support volunteer efforts and recognize volunteer contributions to the achievement of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) at local, national and international levels. The IVD this year UNV will highlight and support the spirit of volunteerism to help create a better future under its theme “Volunteer Now for Our Common Future.”

“As I move on to the next chapter of my professional life, I thank you for being a remarkable milestone. Beyond the literal meaning of the word ‘work’, working with UNDP and UNV for me was something different. It was a wonderful gift I received in my life. Thank you for showing me kindness, sharing your wisdom, and creating a joyful professional environment like home. Today, I leave here knowing more than when I used to. I’ll never forget my time here. Best wishes to all.”
